Supervisors OK Coon Season

County Supervisors at their November monthly meeting approved a Raccoon season for the county to run from October 1 to March 15. Their approval, subject to final approval by the State Game Commission, came after receiving a petition bearing 130 county names asking for the restricted hunting season. Heretofore the county has had "open season" for raccoons.

Rebels To Open Hoop Season Dec. 1 Against LC Jayvees

The Appomattox Rebels open the basketball season December 1st in a game with the Lynchburg College Junior Varsity at the Appomattox Gym. The Rebels began practice November 16 with twelve boys reporting. These were as follows: Seniors; Lawrence Phelps, Wilfred Rogers, Tom Harrison, Milton Price and Charles Jamerson; Juniors—Harry Davis, Sammy Carter, Dewey Floyd, Carroll Goodrich, Sophomores — Larry Guill, Tommy Lawson; and Freshman — Gene Mims. However only Phelps and Rogers have lettered. The others are either non-lettered varsity members or those from last year's J.V. team.

A starting five has not been decided upon as yet, but already a battle is on for the position.

Here is a brief look at the positions and the candidates.

GUARDS: With the graduation of three top guards this seems to be a weak spot, however Seniors Milton Price (5' 10" 150 lbs. and Charles Jamerson (5' 10" 140 lbs.) seem to have an inside track but they are being pushed by Sammy Carter (5' 10" 155lbs and Tommy Lawson (5' 10" 145 lbs.; Carroll Goodrich (5' 9" 165 lbs) is recovering from a broken arm and will see limited duty during the first part of the season.

CENTER: Lanky John Farrar is gone but this position is well covered by lawrence Phelps (6' 4" 210 lbs), backing him up will be Harry Davis (6'5" 170 lbs.)

FORWARDS: Jimmy Torrence, an all-district choice, has graduated but his running mate Wilfred Rogers (6' 1" 165lbs.) is back at forward, Tom Harrison (6' 1" 150 lbs) a senior with excellent rebounding potential could fill the other spot; Larry Guill (6' 170 lbs) and Dewey Floyd (5' 11" 155 lbs) will see a lot of action, Gene Mims, a transfer from Texas is expected to help out at this position.

OVERALL: Although this year's team will be short on experience it will be tall in desire and enthusiasm. As the season progresses these weak points should find themselves and the Rebel team in Group II District 4 competition.

Coach Walter Carson belives this team to be a replica of the team which finished second to Gretna in the District Tournament two years ago. With support and fan enthusiasm the Rebels could go all the way. So come out and support the Rebels.
